Re: United States v. Grasso et al., 20-CR-00163 (PKC)

Dear Judge Castel:

The undersigned represents defendant Conor Flynn in the above referenced indictment. I write to respectfully request, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim P. 10(b), that the Court allow Mr. Flynn to waive his personal appearance of his April 21, 2020 arraignment and the initial conference. Attached as Exhibit A is a written waiver of appearance executed by Mr. Flynn. The Government has no objection to this request.

Mr. Flynn resides in upstate New York (Orange County). His attendance would require him to drive more than ninety (90) minutes from that location to New York City, and given the public health crisis in New York City relating to the COVID 19 pandemic, I respectfully request the Court grant Mr. Flynn's waiver of personal appearance.

As reflected in the written waiver of appearance, Mr. Flynn has received a copy of the above referenced indictment and I have reviewed it with him. Mr. Flynn enters a plea of "Not Guilty," to Count One.

Moreover, given the current national health emergency created by the COVID 19 Pandemic, I respectfully request to appear in this matter telephonically.

Respectfully submitted

/s/
